Login information:

AQRR - Compliance Reporting utilizes Environmental Protection Agency Shared CROMERR Services (EPA SCS) to create and securely issue signing credentials to authorized users. Many EPA websites that allow electronic submission of data or reports utilize an EPA SCS login. An example of a widely used application that uses an EPA SCS login is Central Data Exchange (CDX). You can log into AQRR - Compliance Reporting using your existing EPA CDX username and password. If you do not already have an EPA SCS account, such as CDX, you can create an EPA SCS account in AQRR.

Authorization to upload and/or submit compliance reports:

AQRR utilizes a user's SLEIS account to determine what facility(s) a user has access to and what actions are authorized. AQRR verifies your account username, which is your email address, with SLEIS to determine what facility or facilities a user has access to and what actions are authorized. Individual's assigned as a Submitter (RO) in SLEIS are authorized to upload and submit compliance reports. All other active users in SLEIS are allowed to upload compliance reports but cannot submit compliance reports. If you need to create or update SLEIS authorizations please visit eAirServices \(iowaDNR.gov\). Once there, scroll down to the SLEIS section and click on the tab labeled "Access Help".
